D	Insignificant/detrimental	good	fair	poor	bad

Notable features:

The heavy formstone at 44, 54, 56, 60, 66, 70-74 is unsightly; numbers 62 and 72 are stuccoed. The 2½ story gabled house group at the north end, including one with a mansard roof, is interesting for variety. Zirkler's Bakery, a one-story modern building, is not attractive.

Environmental context:

This is the Hollins Market street, so it is metered, parallel parking on this side and angled on the other; resident parking must be tough. Shop fronts are in keeping with the market; it would be nice if there were more. Could use more good-sized street trees.
